

Now in its 23rd year, Strings & Jazzy Things Summer Music Camp provides an opportunity for middle school students to work with professional musicians and music educators.

This tuition-free, intensive camp also includes lunch daily, an evening meal on Friday, 2 snacks each day, a t-shirt, and a final concert for parents.

The Philharmonic Orchestra was established in 1941 and is the largest all-volunteer orchestra in Indianapolis.

The Philharmonic's education programs include a side-by-side concert with the Pike High School orchestras, a Listen Up! concert for 3rd-grade students from Indianapolis public schools, and a fall concert featuring Strings & Jazzy Things camp alumni.

2020 Strings & Jazzy Things Summer Music Camp

Enjoy 5 days of an intensive music day camp for students age 10-15 who have participated at least 2 years in an academic music program. At Strings & Jazzy Things you can improve your music skills, learn music theory and improvisation, and make new friends. All workshops are fun, creative, and practical and are based on Indiana Academic Standards for Music. Your parents are invited to attend a final concert on Friday evening.

All students will be assigned the Blue ensemble (band) or Green or Red orchestra. (Students who wish to play in the Red orchestra must audition on June 13. More information is included on the registration form.)

This FREE music camp will be held from Monday, June 15 - Friday, June 19, 2020 in the Steffen Music Center on the Marian University Campus. The camp runs from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM Monday-Thursday and 9:00 AM to 7:30 PM on Friday. The camp includes lunch and two snacks daily plus an additional evening meal on Friday.

Registration deadline in Monday, June 8, 2020.

A $25 registration fee is required.

Instruments

For percussion instruction, all instruments are provided. For brass, woodwind or string instruments, you will need to provide your own instrument.

Strings & Jazzy Things summer music camp is for both orchestra and band players.

Please note that the time of the camp is different on Friday. Students will remain at camp through the afternoon for a pizza party and the Celebration Concert.

The concert is 6:00 to 7:30 PM. Students are released to their parents after the concert.

There are a few qualifications:

- Students must be able to read standard music notation.
- Students must have 2 school years playing the instrument they will play at camp.
- Students must be 10-15 years of age.
- Students must be up to date on their immunizations.
- Participation in the Friday evening Celebration Concert is required.
- All students must abide by the Strings & Jazzy Things Community Standards.

Please have parents and students read the Strings & Jazzy Things Community Standards. You will be asked to confirm your agreement to adhere to these standards during the registration process.
